Is your Moose Lodge tired of maintaining bulky BINGO and number drawing equipment? Would it be nice to have a computerized log of each drawing transaction?

Consider upgrading to our Windows-based software for hosting these lodge games. Moose Lodge #873 located in Logan, Ohio trusts our software for their games, why not try it out? Visit www.zupware.com for pricing, specifications, and a free trial download.

The screenshot displays a software window titled "File Edit View Help". Below the menu bar is a menu with options: "Game", "New Game F3", "Draw Next F5", "Administration F8", "Hide F10", "Exit F12", and "User's Guide F1".

The main display area shows a 5x15 bingo card with columns labeled B, I, N, G, O. The numbers are arranged in a standard 75-ball bingo format. The number 27 in the I column is highlighted in yellow. Below the card is a collection of colorful bingo balls (yellow, green, red, white) with numbers and letters on them, such as O66, O73, G56, G58, O70, G5, G58, O74, G50, O69, G46, G59, G51, O75, N37, N38, and I28.
